About the Pan Pacific Championships

The Pan Pacific Swimming Championships are held under the oversight of the Pan Pacific Swimming Association. The Association was established in the mid 1980s and is made up of the four founding swimming federations – Swimming Australia, Swimming Canada, the Japan Amateur Swimming Federation and USA Swimming. These charter nations developed the concept of the swimming competition to provide their national teams with first-class international competition between the two major international swimming competitions – the Olympic Games and the FINA World Championships.

Year	Host City	Year	Host City
1985	Tokyo, JAPAN	1999	Sydney, AUSTRALIA
1987	Brisbane, AUSTRALIA	2002	Yokohama, JAPAN
1989	Tokyo, JAPAN	2006	Victoria, CANADA
1991	Edmonton, CANADA	2010	Irvine, California, USA
1993	Kobe, JAPAN	2014	Gold Coast, AUSTRALIA
1995	Atlanta, Georgia, USA	2018	Tokyo, JAPAN
1997	Fukuoka, JAPAN

Most Decorated Swimmers in Pan Pacs History

Since its inception in 1985, some of the world's greatest swimmers have participated in the Pan Pacific Championships. Entering the 2018 meet, Jenny Thompson (12 gold) and Michael Phelps (8 gold) top the list for the most men's and women's individual gold medals, respectively. With four gold medals won in 2014, Katie Ledecky is tops among active swimmers and ranks sixth all-time among women.

Gold Medalists Named Team Captains

Veteran USA Swimming National Team members Nathan Adrian, Matt Grevers, Allison Schmitt and Leah Smith were voted team captains by the 57 athletes slated to compete in Tokyo. Adrian and Grevers also served as men's co-captains for last summer's FINA World Championships, while Adrian also was selected a co-captain for the 2016 Olympic Games. Schmitt also was a co-captain for the women's squad in Rio de Janeiro.

Athlete Selection for the 2018 Pan Pacific Championships

August 9-12, 2018 (pool competition), Tokyo, Japan

Twenty-six (26) men and 26 women will be selected for the 2018 Pan Pacific Championships using the following criteria based on finishes at the 2018 Phillips 66 National Championships:

Priority #1: The top four finishers in the finals of the 100m and 200m freestyle and the winner of each individual Olympic event other than the 100m and 200m freestyle.

Priority #2: The second-place finisher in each individual Olympic event other than the 100m and 200m freestyle.

Priority #3: The third-place finisher in each individual Olympic event other than the 100m and 200m freestyle.

Priority #4: The fourth-place finisher in each individual Olympic event other than the 100m and 200m freestyle.

If the above priorities result in a list of more than 26 men or 26 women, integrated world rankings will be used for the selection. Note: This is an abbreviated version of the selection criteria. For the complete document, visit www.usaswimming.org.

Athlete Selection for the 2019 FINA World Championships

July 21-28, 2019 (pool competition), Gwangju, South Korea

A maximum 26 men and 26 women will be selected for the 2019 FINA World Championships using the following criteria based on times posted at the 2018 Phillips 66 National Championships (A final only) and 2018 Pan Pacific Championships (A and B finals only):

Priority #1: The four fastest times in the finals of the 100m and 200m freestyle and the fastest time in the finals of each individual Olympic event other than the 100m and 200m freestyle.

Priority #2: The second-fastest time in the finals in each individual Olympic event other than the 100m and 200m freestyle.

Priority #3: The fastest time in the finals at Nationals in each non-Olympic event. Pending available spots, athletes within priority #3 will be added to the team in order based on the integrated world rankings of their A final time at Nationals.

Priority #4: The fifth-fastest time in the finals in the 100m and 200m freestyle.

Priority #5: The sixth-fastest time in the finals in the 100m and 200m freestyle.

If the above priorities result in a list of more than 26 men or 26 women, integrated world rankings will be used for the selection. If all five priorities are used and the result is fewer than 26 men or 26 women, no additional swimmers will be added. Note: This is an abbreviated version of the selection criteria. ## Lindsay Mintenko National Team Managing Director

In October of 2017 USA Swimming named Lindsay Mintenko as the first female senior executive to lead the organization's National Team Division amid a restructuring of the organization's technical swimming staff.

In her new role as National Team Managing Director, Mintenko will oversee all aspects of USA Swimming's National Team program with the ultimate goal of ensuring that USA Swimming maintains its unprecedented run of international success. Key areas of focus for Mintenko will be athlete and coach development and National Team division support.

Mintenko is one of the University of Southern California's most decorated women's swimmers. A 21-time All-American, she won five NCAA individual titles—three in the 500-yard freestyle (1996-97-99) and two in the 200-yard backstroke (1996-97)—and she helped the Women of Troy to their only NCAA team championship in 1997. In her USC career, she reached the NCAA finals in all 12 individual events in which she competed. She also won six career Pac-10 titles.

She won gold medals as a U.S. team captain at the 2000 and 2004 Olympics in the 800-meter freestyle relay and added a silver in 2004 in the 400-meter freestyle relay. A 10-time U.S. national champion, three-time medalist at the World Championships and a seven-time medalist at the Pan-Pacific Championships, she set numerous USC, American and world records. After five years as an USC assistant coach, she assumed her current role as USA Swimming's National Team managing director in 2006.

Mintenko graduated from the University of Southern California in 1999 with a B.A. in communications and minor in Business. She currently resides in Colorado Springs, Colorado, with her husband, Mike and their two children.

Jon Urbanchek National Team Technical Advisor

Jon Urbanchek was named to the newly appointed position of National Team Technical Advisor in June 2018. The six-time U.S. Olympic Swimming Team coach works alongside USA Swimming's National Team Managing Director Lindsay Mintenko to provide vision and leadership for America's top coaches and elite athletes, with the focus on performance.

The inaugural recipient of the IOC Coaches Lifetime Achievement Award in 2017 and a member of the International Swimming Hall of Fame, Urbanchek will support the U.S. National Team at international events and consult on coaching decisions with the ultimate aim of delivering optimum performance and continuing to build upon the positive camaraderie ingrained within the National Team culture.

Spanning a 20-year stretch, Urbanchek was a member of six U.S. Olympic Team coaching staffs – 1992, 1996, 2000, 2004, 2008 and 2012. Forty-four Urbanchek-coached swimmers have qualified for the Olympic Games, with this group winning more than 20 medals, including 11 gold medals. He coached Rod Strachan to the Olympic gold medal in the 400-meter individual medley in 1976 and was the primary coach of at least one Olympic gold medalist at every Olympic Games from 1996 to 2012.

Urbanchek was the primary coach of Olympic stars Mike Barrowman, Tom Dolan, Tom Malchow, Eric Namesnik, Eric Wunderlich, Gustavo Borges and Brent Lang and also has worked closely with many other legends, including Michael Phelps and Katie Ledecky.

Additionally, his coaching tree has spawned many of today's top American coaches, including fellow U.S. Olympic staff members Bob Bowman, Bruce Gemmell and Dave Salo.

On the collegiate front, Urbanchek was the men's head coach at the University of Michigan from 1983-2004 where he led the Wolverines to 13 Big Ten Conference titles, including 10 straight from 1986-95. A native of Hungary, Urbanchek was an All-American swimmer at Michigan from 1958-62.

Albiero, Looze Named Head Coaches for the 2018 Pan Pacific Championships

In April, USA Swimming announced that Indiana University head coach Ray Looze and University of Louisville head coach Arthur Albiero have been selected to lead the United States' team as men's and women's head coach, respectively, at the 2018 Pan Pacific Championships.

Selected as the men's head coach for the 2018 Pan Pacific Championships, Looze is coming off his 13th year as coach of both the Indiana Hoosiers men's and women's swimming programs. There, he currently oversees Olympic gold medalists Lilly King, Cody Miller, Blake Pieroni and National Team members Ian Finnerty and Zane Grothe. Most recently in March, Looze was named the men's College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) Coach of the Year following a third-place finish at the NCAA Championships for the Hoosiers. This event will mark Looze's sixth appearance as a National Team coach. He most recently served as an Assistant Women's Coach for the U.S. at the 2017 FINA World Championships and previous roles included Assistant Women's Coach at the 2016 Olympic Games.

Albiero, selected as the women's head coach for the 2018 Pan Pacific Championship, is coming off his 15th year, and best NCAA finish in school history, as the Louisville Cardinals' head swimming coach. He currently works with Olympic medalist Kelsi Dahlia, five-time world champion Mallory Comerford and National Team members Andrea Cottrell and Zach Harting. Albiero has previously made four international appearances as a coach for the U.S. swim team. In 2017 he was named a FINA World Championships Assistant Women's Coach and in 2016 he was the Short Course World Championships Head Women's Coach.
